DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).
2. In response to applicant's argument that the examiner's conclusion of obviousness is based upon improper hindsight reasoning, it must be recognized that any judgment on obviousness is in a sense necessarily a reconstruction based upon hindsight reasoning. But so long as it takes into account only knowledge which was within the level of ordinary skill at the time the claimed invention was made, and does not include knowledge gleaned only from the applicant's disclosure, such a reconstruction is proper. See In re McLaughlin, 443 F.2d 1392, 170 USPQ 209 (CCPA 1971).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 2-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Claims 2-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Broadbent et al (US 6,985,886) in view of Creamer et al (US-PG Pub 2002/0138413)

As in claims 2- 5, Broadbent teaches a method comprising: pre-approving a customer for refinancing of a mortgage loan; sending an offer for said refinancing to said customer, said offer comprising materials setting forth the terms of said refinanced mortgage loan, materials providing all required pre-acceptance disclosures, and instructions describing how said customer may accept said offer; receiving an indication of acceptance of said offer from said customer (Broadbent abstract, col. 2 lines 3-19, col. 3 lines 55-67, col. 4 lines 1-25, col. 8 lines 35-67, col. 9 lines, col. 10 lines 51-67, col. 11 lines 1-5, col. 11 15-38, col. 12 lines 21-67, col. 13 lines. 1-67).

Broadbent does not specifically teach sending a closing package to said customer to be executed by said customer, Said execution by said customer creating a refinancing loan agreement. Creamer does make this teaching (Creamer. para.s 55-76). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to combine this teaching of Creamer with those of Broadbent because doing so, as suggested by Creamer, allows for the disbursement of funds (Creamer para. 67)

Art Unit: 3696

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
